

Savannah Lakes Village

317 Kingfisher Point, McCormick, SC

This desirable 3BR/3.5BA, one-story waterfront luxury home, located on Lake Thurmond in Savannah Lakes Village sits on a private lot and has recently been renovated and updated. This major transition included new stucco and stone façade, roof, windows, skylights, HVAC systems, deck, garage doors, lighting, and so much more.

Offered at $990,900

When pulling up to this sprawling one-story home, you will be captivated by its simplicity, yet impeccable taste of architectural detail and elements used. The long driveway brings you down to a pathway of Belgard pavers that lead you up to the wide front steps and Brazilian teak wood that surrounds this spacious entryway. Located on a point and surrounded by the National Forests beauty, this nostalgic, peaceful environment offers an active lifestyle for the golfer, boater or enthusiast, or just simply a place to relax with friends and enjoy the stunning sunsets. This diamond in the rough is truly a one of a kind "gem".

More about this waterfront "One-of-a-Kind" gem...

When entering through the front door, you are met with stunning views of the Lake and the pouring in of natural light that literally will take your breath away. A large foyer opens up into a great room with 16' vaulted ceilings, porcelain weathered wood floors, a granite surround gas fireplace, fully equipped wet bar, motorized shaded skylights, built-ins, and floor to ceiling windows looking out onto the lake. An expansive 900 square foot deck and screened in porch, ideal for entertaining, overlook 200 feet of waterfront and spectacular visual views of the lake. Surrounded by mature pines, a pathway leads you down to the private dock area where your boat slip awaits.

The spacious kitchen is equipped with all new black stainless appliances, a center island, lots of counter space, custom soft close cabinets, and a large butler's pantry. The attached dining room has French doors, granite top built-ins with an access door to the kitchen. There is a game room for entertaining and playing cards with friends and an office for quiet time and business.

The elegant master suite has built-ins, vaulted ceilings, a large sitting area, French doors to the deck, motorized shaded skylights, floor to ceiling windows overlooking the lake, his and hers bath suites, an oversized shower, jetted Jacuzzi tub, custom master closet with entry into a large laundry room with loads of storage; this oasis spells out luxury in its purest form. Wake up to colorful breathtaking sunrises and relax in the evenings with views of picturesque sunsets.

There are two additional large bedrooms with large closets and an abundance of storage in this home! Energy Efficiency was a priority when the owners installed all dual pane, low-emittance windows with plantation shutters, Energy Star Rated appliances, climate controlled, energy efficient HVAC systems, steel insulated garage doors and a whole home water filtration system. The oversized garage has lots of storage and views of the lake and an attached bonus room.

Call today and see if this hidden gem of a home is the one you have been waiting for!
This is a "must see". Schedule now for your private viewing.
